

Surin Islands

Unspoiled islands of Koh Surin lie 60 kilometers off the Phang-Nga coast. Discovered in the early '70s, the coral reefs at Surin islands are the best snorkeling site in Thailand. The islands are naturally uninhabited except for the nomadic sea gypsies-the Moken. Peaceful and tranquil, various wildlife can be found on the islands including flying squirrels, pig-tailed monkeys, flying lizards, eagles and sea eagles.

*Important Note

There are about 10 snorkeling sites at Surin Islands Mae Yai Bay, Chong Kard Bay and Ao Tao are their best three sites. Medsye likes to take our tourist to these three reefs on a daily basis. However, the weather conditions and sea currents will be determined where we can snorkel; the itinerary is subject to change.

We have operated tours to Similan Islands since 1986
